S.C., as stage director, Mr. Charles Franklin, Kl. R. Dir off Mussi, E. A., as musical director, and Capt. Tucker, k.E., as business manager, performed their arilous duties with unflagging energy. Mr. Felix Powell undertook the charge of the box offices arrangements, and it is undoubtedly to his remarkable powers of organisation that the liannels alsoesse of the undertaking is principally due. Dr. Clark rendered efficigit service as prompter. Mr. Peacock difference a special world of praise for his able sensitation as musical conductor during Mr. Franklin s absence at Khartoum.
